The Prayer of the South.

BY FATHER RYAN.

My brow is bent beneath a heavy rod!
My face is wan and white with many woes,
But I will lift my poor, chained hands to God,
And for my children pray, and for my foes.
Beside the graves where thousands lowly lie,
I kneel—and weeping for each slaughtered son,
I turn my gaze to my own sunny sky,
And pray, Oh! Father, may Thy will be done!

My heart is filled with anguish, deep and vast:
My hopes are buried with my children's dust,
My joys have fled—my tears are flowing fast;
To whom save Thee, our Father, shall I trust?
Ah! I forgot Thee, Father, long and oft,
When I was happy, rich, and proud and free;
But conquered now, and crushed, I look aloft,
And sorrow leads me, Father, back to Thee.

Amid the wrecks that mark the foeman's path,
I kneel—and wailing o'er my glories gone,
I still each thought of hate, each throb of wrath,
And whisper—Father! let Thy will be done.
Pity me, Father of the desolate!
Alas! my burdens are so hard to bear;
Look down in mercy on my wretched fate,
And keep me, guard me with Thy loving care.

Pity me, Father! for His holy sake,
Whose broken heart bled at the feet of Grief,
That hearts of earth, whenever they shall break,
Might go to Him and find a sure relief.
Ah, me! how dark! Is this a brief eclipse?
Or is it night, with no To-morrow's sun?
Oh! Father! Father! with my pale, sad lips,
And sadder heart, I pray, Thy will be done.

My homes are joyless, and a million mourn
Where many met in joys forever flown;
Whose hearts were light, are burdened now, and torn,
Where many smiled, but one is left to mourn.
And ah! the widow's wails, the orphan's cries,
Are morning hymn and vesper chant, to me;
And groans of men, and sounds of women's sighs,
Commingle, Father, with my prayer to Thee.

Beneath my feet—ten thousand children dead—
Oh! how I loved each known and nameless one!
Above their dust I bow my crownless head,
And murmur, Father! still—Thy will be done.
Ah! Father, Thou didst deck my own loved land
With all bright charms and beautiful and fair;
But foemen came, and with a ruthless hand,
Spread ruin, wreck and desolation there.

Girdled with gloom—of all my brightness shorn,
And garmented with grief, I kiss Thy rod;
And turn my face, with tears all wet, and worn,
To catch one smile of pity from my God.
Around me blight, where all before was bloom!
And so much lost—alas! and nothing won!
Save this—that I can lean on wreck and tomb,
And weep—and weeping pray, Thy will be done.

And Oh! 'tis hard to say—but said, 'tis sweet—
The words are bitter, but they hold a balm;
A balm that heals the wounds of my defeat,
And lulls my sorrows into holy calm.
It is the prayer of prayers—and how it brings,
When heard in Heaven, sweet peace and hope to me;
When Jesus prayed it, did not angels' wings
Gleam 'mid the darkness of Gethsemane?

My children, Father, Thy forgiveness need!
Alas! the r hearts have only place for tears;
Forgive them, Father, every wrongful deed,
And every sin of those four mournful years.
And give them strength to bear their boundless loss,
And from their hearts take every thought of hate;
And while they climb their Calvary with their cross,
Oh! help them, Father, to endure its weight.

And for my dead, my Father, may I pray?
Ah! sighs may soothe, but prayer shall soothe me more!
I keep eternal watch above their clay—
Oh! rest their souls, my Father, I implore!
Forgive my foes—they know not what they do—
Forgive them all the tears they made me shed;
Forgive them—though my noblest sons they slew—
And bless them—though they curse my poor, dear dead!

Oh! may my woes be each a carrier dove,
With swift, white wings, that, bathing in my tears,
Will bear Thee, Father, all my prayers of love,
And bring me peace in all my doubts and fears.
Father, I kneel 'mid ruin, wreck and grave,
A desert waste, where all was erst so fair,
And for my children and my foes I crave
Pity and pardon—Father! hear my prayer.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER
$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D. Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST. JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also

Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,
Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

North Carolina Bonds: Old 65, New 62½

The Henderson Index, in giving the names of the new Faculty at Chapel Hill, inadvertently prints "Brown" for "Brewer." Our friend Harris should at once beg pardon of the universal Brown family.

We have been surprised, if one can be surprised at anything in these times, to see that the Editor of the Goldsboro' News was the Radical candidate for Mayor in that town. For a large man, Whitaker turns round oftener than any man we wot of.

The city of Atlanta has put under contract the twenty miles of Road it undertook to build along the line of the route from Atlanta, Ga., to Charlotte, N. C. Arrangements are in progress with the view to the speedy and vigorous prosecution of this important improvement.

The contrast between the course pursued by Gen. Butler towards President Johnson on New Year's Day and that taken by Gen. Grant is the theme of much comment in Northern circles.—Gen. Grant's friends regret that he should have left the city, and now charge that Butler's course was only adopted in a spirit of censure upon the President elect. In alluding to the matter Gen. Butler is said to have remarked to a friend, on leaving the White House—"I wonder who is now the party bottled up?"

General Joseph E. Johnston has determined to remain in Georgia, and has fixed upon Savannah as the place of his residence.

Jno M. Botts is reported to be in a dying condition.

According to the statistics, Massachusetts is shown to contain (in round numbers,) about fifty-seven thousand paupers and vagrants, eleven thousand criminals, twenty-five hundred insane, sixteen hundred pupils in reformatories, and five thousand deaf, dumb, blind, and otherwise dependent human creatures.

The Ogeechee troubles in Georgia are not yet over. The negroes seem to have banded together to appropriate to themselves all the rice farms on that river. They have collected in large force and have thus far bid defiance to the posse sent against them by the officers of the law. Of course this insurrection will be put down. The occurrence, however, of such an attempt only shows what a set of barbarians the Radicals would place in power over the whole South.

The Washington Express, alluding to the "Penitentiary Ring" in this State, says "there is where many of the ring-masters ought to be brought up." This is as heavy a joke as that perpetrated by Senator Robbins, when he said that "unfortunately, none of the Committee had ever been inside of a Penitentiary."

"What a comment," says the Wilmington Journal, "upon the times and our condition, that not a native of the Cape Fear region, and, with an insignificant exception, not a North Carolinian or a Southerner," was upon the successful Radical ticket at the late Municipal election in that city.

General Grant has determined that his man Friday (Washburne) is not to go into the Cabinet, but to France. The General has also demanded the repeal of the tenure-of-office law.—Both statements are vouched for by a Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette.

A new variety of cotton is being raised in Texas, called "lace" cotton. It is said to be superior to any other kind of cotton which can be raised on poor soil and uplands. Its strength compares with the best American staple as 7½ to 5. It closely resembles the Egyptian cotton, which is worth one-fourth more than our own in England.

The scallawag Governor of Georgia is called C. O. D. He jumped from an Express wagon into the Executive chair.

The Memphis Avalanche says: "A singular spectacle was presented to the people of Memphis on Tuesday. Just across the river, at Hopefield Arkansas, three hundred armed negroes could be seen parading in all "the pomp and circumstance of glorious war." We say it was a singular spectacle to witness, in time of profound peace, glistening bayonets, and to hear the squeak of the "wry-necked fife." Several months since a man was killed in Marion, Crittenden county, and these troops have been sent by the infamous Clayton to annoy and bedevil the people. The outrages perpetrated at Augusta and other places in Arkansas are to be repeated within sight of Memphis."

TOM STEELE, JUDGE CLOUD, AND THE GRAND JURY OF ORANGE.

Tom Steele was O'Connell's head Pacificator and Repeal Warden-in-chief for all Ireland. In 1844, he was indicted and convicted, with O'Connell, and other eminent Repealers. Tom was very restless and talkative about the indictment. In fact, he was pleased at the association of his name with such distinguished personages, if it was in an indictment. The Attorney General Smith, seeing the inward gratification which Tom felt at the indictment, while he complained bitterly about it, turned upon him with anger and said: "Tom Steele, if you don't hush and be quiet, I will strike your name out of the indictment!"

This threat of depriving him of the honors of political persecution and martyrdom, with O'Connell and the great folks, immediately silenced Tom Steele.

Now, without anger, we say to Judge Cloud, (who may be secretly pleased, yet seems to have the fidgets, not because he is presented, but because the Chief Justice and the Governor are presented,) that if he don't hush and be quiet, we will have his name stricken out of the presentment of the Grand Jury!

The income of Queen Victoria is fixed by law at $1,935,000 per annum, but this amount is not under her personal control. The sum mentioned is divided into six items, the first of which, $300,000, is the money paid to the Queen in monthly instalments. Item second is $855,300, for the payment of the salaries of the household, from the lord of the bed-chamber to the pages. Item third, $832,500, is for the expenses of the household. The remaining items, amounting to $106,200, are for the payment of civil pensions, and are under the control of the Premier.

DESPERATE FIGHT IN THE CAPITOL.

SEPOYS RISING—PILGRIM ASHLEY SLAIN—THIS BATTLE A TURNING POINT IN HISTORY—TIM LEE, THE SHERIFF, CURSED HALF A MILE OFF—CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON FIGHTS ON THE LINE OF HIS LETTER, WHILE PILGRIM ASHLEY DIES GAME.

On the 4th instant, when the Supreme Court was to assemble, for the first time, under the Constitution which the people of the State had not read—which Constitution was forced upon them by the sword, as clearly as Maximilian and his Constitution were forced upon the Mexicans, the Court found a stranger from Cape Cod occupying their old Court room. This stranger was the Superintendent of Public Instruction, generally known as Pilgrim Ashley.

Notice was duly given by the Court and served by the Marshal, that the Court would occupy their room, and that the Pilgrim would do well, incontinently, to vacate.

The Pilgrim, to use the language of Tom Pence, a Granville county Schoolmaster, "with ferruginous tenacity and bombastic fanaticism," refused to vacate. Whereupon the Court, "in column," as Governor Cantwell, late of Norfolk, would say, marched in, in the following order:

First, the Marshal, our excellent and venerable friend LITCHFORD, armed with a "cotton umbrel." Then

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON, who wrote the letter. Next

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE READE, who wrote the Legislative Address. Next,

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE RODMAN, who condemned more deserters to be shot than the other members of the Court ever shot squirrels. Then,

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE DICK, who signed the Ordinance of Secession, and was a candidate for the Confederate Congress. Then

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SETTLE, the great Confederate Captain; and

Last came our true young friend, JOHNSTON JONES, the Deputy Clerk, with a sharp steel pen behind his ear, ready for action.

The Marshal proclaimed, with a decorous voice, "Oh! yes! Oh! yes! Oh! yes! This Honorable Court, &c., &c., &c. God save the State and this Honorable Court!"

This, for a time, seemed to demoralize the Pilgrim. Rebels calling on God was some thing new and startling to him. He knew that they had been taught, by Gov. Holden, to rely upon Davis and Lee, and now, if Rebels relied on Heaven, he was gone, for he was relying on negroes and the army. However, the Pilgrim maintained his ground. With a spelling book in his hand, supposed to be Noah Webster's, and with a box of paper collars on his official desk, he tried to look indifferent, and to ignore the presence of the Court, as much as if they had all been out making political speeches on the hustings, instead of being convened in his presence, as one of the great co-ordinate branches of the government, for the administration of justice.

The Court had not assembled for business, but only for organization, and to make up an issue with the Pilgrim as to the title to their room. They soon adjourned, to meet again the next day.

Now the whole city was excited on the question. The talk was that the blood and indignation of the Court were fully up; that Pilgrim Ashley would be attached for contempt of Court and sent to jail. Our feeling was for and with the Court. We always side with the weak. It was not the first time our Courts had been insulted and defied by carpet-baggers like Ashley. Judge Merrimon's Court, in Asheville, in his absence, was entered and a judgment, voluntarily confessed by a defendant, stricken out by a carpet bagger like Ashley. When the Sheriff of Wake was executing the orders of Judge Fowle, of the Superior Court, a carpet-bagger interfered and the order of the Court was set at defiance. We wish our Courts to resume the dignity and command the respect which belonged to them, when Gaston, and Badger, and Ruffin, and Nash, and Daniel presided; but, as soon as they enter the political arrena, and Judges traverse the State, speech making to negroes, with such signers of the ordinance of Secession as Governor Holden, then we want the Grand Juries to present them, as that of Orange did.

On the second day of the fight, the Court rather gave way. They met,—Pilgrim Ashley in possession of the room. It was evident that they were now demoralized,—Marshal Litchford had stacked his arms, (his "umbrel" was left at home,) the sharp steel pen had dropped from the ear of the Deputy, and the Court had sent in a memorial to the Legislature to make Pilgrim Ashley quit. If the Court had ordered our old friend, the Marshal, to eject him, he would have done it promptly. He used to whip Andy Johnson soundly, when he was an apprentice. We have often told him that we feared he did not give him enough, or he would have known better than to have reconstructed us. To which the Marshal has always replied that he "never whipped to make a President, but only a Tailor,—and that he had done."

The House, by a unanimous vote save seven, ordered the Pilgrim to quit, and the Senate on yesterday concurred.

The intense interest in the matter, of which we have spoken, was confined to the women and children and the government officials. The Governor was greatly excited. It is thought that he will have to go to bed, when the excitement wears off. Like a nervous woman, it is well known that he has to go to bed, after suffering a little anxiety, on any subject.

Meaninger, the carpet-bag Secretary of State, was so excited, that it is thought his bill for stationery for the next six months will reach thirty thousand dollars!

C. L. Harris is a very imperturbable man. He is so self satisfied at having, under the "neg march of civilization," "marched" into the Governor's Mansion, that nothing now disturbs him except his agency in locating the Penitentiary.

Henderson Adams, the Comptroller of State, said "Let us have peace." He, with the assistance of Mr. Henry A. Badham, of Gideon's Band, parted Judge Tourgee and "Hon." Wm. P. Henderson in that fight before the ladies on the cars. He looked as if Fisher, the carpet-bag Adjutant General, should be called out with the Governor's special police to settle things between the Pilgrim and the Court.

Little Coleman, the Attorney General, was present. He looked very angry, for the action of the Court was reversing his opinion, deliberately made and promulgated, that Ashley was entitled to the room.

The Lieutenant-Governor, for a while, absented himself from the Senate Chamber, ceased to think of that banned rebel, Col. Avery, and entered the Court-room followed by his brother Senator, Henry Eppes, and the Commoner Hayes, both of color and both of Halifax.

[NOTE—There is no resemblance between Senator Eppes and the Lieutenant Governor. Senator Eppes is a thin, spare made, intellectual-looking man, while the Lieutenant Governor is short, thick and fleshy, in his corporeal, as well as his intellectual, department. The Lieutenant Governor more resembles Senator Galloway, of New Hanover, the late Republican Presidential Elector. They both have gold watches—Senator Galloway's presented by the Electoral College, and the Lieutenant Governor's by the Senate. Their weight is about the same—we should say about 180½ lbs., or, may be, 183. They are about the same height—Galloway being a little the taller. Some of the Republican party think Senator Galloway the best debater in the Senate, on that side, while President Smith, of the N. C. Railroad, is regarded as the first Republican orator of the State. That is, he can keep the negro longer on the grin than any other statesman and orator of that party.]

Well, Judge Tourgee and "Hon." W. P. Henderson were also in attendance. They seemed to dwell once more in love and harmony together. The Judge wore a self-complaisant air, as if he had compelled Judge Dick to change the opinion he once entertained of him, when Governor Worth wrote that letter to Canby. The "Hon." W. F. wore much the same aspect as when we saw him arraigned before Judge Cloud for stealing Darr's mule, (the Judge looking through F. P. Blair's spectacles.) Henderson is thought, by some, the handsomest Radical in the State. We hope, for the honor of the profession, that this "Hero of America" will be acquitted when his case is finally determined.

The Court has won the victory! The natives have triumphed! The carpet-baggers are routed,—but Pilgrim Ashley died game! John Brown, at Harper's Ferry, did not surpass him.—We glory in his pluck; he's of the blood of the Roundheads.

Taken with the fact that a Radical on the streets cursed Sheriff Tim Lee, when he was half a mile off, and remarked "what a fool" he was for voting for him, when there were such men as Lewis, High and Ray, who ought to have the Sheriffalty, we regard this triumph as a turning point in our history.

The battle of Arbela was declared to be the most important battle of ancient history, and the modern battle of Tours has been classed as among those signal deliverances, which have affected for centuries the happiness of mankind. The battle of Bunker Hill is ranked with these two great battles, and after this defeat of the carpet-baggers, in the very portals of the Capitol, the natives may look up and no longer live in slavish obedience to carpet-bag influence and rule!

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Jan. 7, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

The Speaker announced the following gentlemen as the House branch of the Joint Committee to revise the Code of Civil Procedure, to-wit: Messrs. Argo, Seymour and Bowman.

PETITIONS, &C.

Mr. Gilbert presented a petition from the citizens of McDowell county. Referred.

Messrs Snipes, Matheson, Hoffman, Ellington, Wiswall and Durham presented the reports of their County Commissioners, and,

Mr. Grier presented a substitute for the former report of the Commissioners of Mecklenburg county, as it was found to be incorrect. All the reports were appropriately referred.

Mr. Hoffman presented a petition from the citizens of Dallas and Gaston. Referred.

Mr. Downing, in accordance with a notice given yesterday, presented a petition from the House branch of the Committee on the Penitentiary, asking for a Committee to investigate the matter in regard to a purchase of a site for that institution.

The petition was read at length, when,

Mr. Downing took the floor and proceeded to give a history of the action of the Committee.

Mr. French offered the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That a Committee of five, on the part of the House, and three, on the part of the Senate, be appointed by the presiding officers of the respective bodies, whose duty it shall be to investigate all the facts connected with the purchase of the Penitentiary site, and other property, by the Committee appointed under "An act to provide for the employment of convicts, and the erection of a Penitentiary," and report as to the value of said property, and as to the propriety of the State selling the same, or any part thereof. Said Committee shall have power to send for persons, to examine witnesses under oath, and administer oaths.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. French, and the resolution was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

By Mr. Estes: A resolution, directing the Clerk of the House to prepare a new list of the Standing Committees, stating at what hour and day these Committees hold their meetings.

The rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution giving the Hall, this evening, to Prof. Doherty for a lecture. Adopted.

Mr. French moved that all the reports of Commissioners, reported upon by the Committee on Counties and Townships, be recalled and re-referred to that Committee.—Carried.

By Mr. Malone: A resolution in regard to printing laws. Lies over.

By Mr. Pou: A resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire and report, at as early a day as possible, whether the purchase of eight thousand acres of land by the Joint Committee to locate the Penitentiary, was made by authority of law.

After a short debate, J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) moved to lay the resolution on the table, as he thought the Special Committee raised by Mr. French's resolution answered every purpose in view.

On the motion to table Mr. Pou called for the yeas and nays, and the call being sustained resulted, yeas 30, nays 54.

Mr. French said if Mr. Pou's resolution was adopted, no man of any independence would consent to serve on the special Committee. All authority was taken from the proposed Committee. In fact, it was discourteous to it. Enlarge its powers or restrict them, but don't take away all authority from it.

Mr. Pou said that Committee was not yet born, and he could not be discourteous to a Committee that as yet had no existence.—He then proceeded to show the utility of his resolution, and that it no way hampered the proposed Committee.

Here a long discussion ensued, as to the propriety of Mr. Pou's withdrawing his resolution, in deference to the proposed Special Committee raised by Mr. French's resolution—Messrs. French, Sinclair, and Downing arguing for a withdrawal, and Messrs. Pou and Malone opposing it.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, hoped Mr. Pou's resolution would be voted down.

Mr. Vest called for a reading of the resolution. The Clerk read it, when,

Wm. Cawthorn (colored) moved to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. Estes moved to postpone the matter until to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Lost.

J. S. Leary, colored, hoped the resolution would be adopted. It only asked the opinion of the Judiciary as to a question of law. He could see no reason why any one should object to it.

Mr. French said he would offer a supplementary resolution as a substitute for Mr. Pou's resolution.

While he was writing the resolution,

Mr. Estes introduced a resolution amending the rules of the House. Lies over.

Also an act to organize the Militia of North Carolina. Referred.

Mr. French then introduced the following substitute for Mr. Pou's resolutions, viz:

Resolved, (the Senate concurring) that the Committee, authorized to be raised to investigate facts concerning the Penitentiary purchase, be instructed to ascertain if there was any fraud in connection with the purchase, and report to this Legislature; also, to ascertain if the Committe were authorized by law to make the purchase.

On the adoption of the substitute, J. S Leary (colored) called for the yeas and nays.

The call being sustained, resulted in a vote of yeas 49, nays 36.

The resolution then passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr Laflin, the House then adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

NOTE.—The Reporter omitted, in yesterday's proceedings, to state that Mr. Hicks presented the report of the commissioners of Clay county.

GEN. GRANT ON RECONSTRUCTION IN GEORGIA.—A private letter has been received by a gentleman in Georgia from Senator elect H. V. M. Miller, in which he states he recently had a long interview with Gen. Grant. During the conversation the reconstruction of Georgia was passed upon at length. Enough was elicited from the President elect to warrant the Senator in assuring his correspondent that if we can manage to hold our present status until the 4th of March all will be well; that there will be no more reconstruction by Congress, at least so far as Georgia is concerned.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, Dec. 30.

Two San Francisco policemen tried to arrest a Chinaman. They found it necessary to leave him a moment, and handcuffed him with his arms each side of a lamp-post. When they returned their prisoner was gone—he had climbed up the post and swung his arms over the top.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were proclaimed in a connected form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal.

No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after decanting of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with the essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive cement.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as medicinal; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every critical the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of ERROR.—An error crept into the Quarterly Statement of the Raleigh National Bank of North Carolina, as published by us on yesterday. The mistake is corrected to-day, viz: "Surplus Fund" $8,280, instead of $3,280.

GANG OF ROBBERS.—It having been reported to the Sheriff of the County that a gang of robbers were seriously depredating in the neighborhood of Earpsboro, in Johnston County, and in the lower edge of Wake, we learn that a posse, consisting of Deputy Gill, Mr. W. C. Parker, and others, were sent down on Wednesday to make arrests, if possible. On nearing the house of one of the suspected parties in this County, regular pickets were found to be posted, who communicated the alarm, and the parties broke for the woods. A sharp and short skirmish ensued, and Deputy Gill was hit with several shot, but not much hurt. No arrests were made, as the robbers, familiar with the country, made their escape, but it is hoped that the nest will be broken up.

"PRAYER OF THE SOUTH."—At the request of a lady friend, we re-publish, on our first page, the beautiful Poem by "Moina," entitled the "Prayer of the South."

REV. JAMES B. BOBBITT makes a pleasing salutatory as Editor of the Episcopal Methodist, published in this city. The first number under his auspices is ably gotten up.

FINE APPLES.—We are indebted to our good friend, Gen. R. B. Vance, of Asheville, through Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co., for some supero apples of the celebrated Neill variety. They are the finest we have ever seen, and one of them, in flavor and size, is equal to half a dozen of the ordinary kinds. Messrs. Jones & Co. have a small lot on hand, for sale.

THEATRE, LAST NIGHT.—Templeton's Troupe was greeted last night by a very large audience, who were entertained agreeably by the effective rendition of Mazeppa. They showed a decided appreciation of the fine acting of Miss Raymond and the spirited role and excellent singing of Alice Vane. To-night is the last night of the Company, and the programme is a very pleasing and attractive one. It will be seen that it embraces some very striking features.

MUTUAL HOME INS. CO.—See notice for a meeting of the Stockholders, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock. A prompt attendance is desired.

INJUNCTION CASE.—We learn that the Injunction case vs. the Public Treasurer and the Chatham Railroad will be argued before the Supreme Court, this morning.

GUS HOLMES, THE MURDERER.—The New York Herald correspondent furnishes that paper a full account of the execution of Gus Holmes, (colored,) at Tarboro, on New Year's Day, for the murder of Matthew King, (colored.) The following is the dying confession of Holmes, from which it appears that much of his life was spent in this city, and he was doubtless well-known to many in our midst:

"I was bound when a boy to Alsey Bevers, in Raleigh. After I got grown I was accused of the crime of ducking a man in a barrel of water, put in jail, was tried and was acquitted. I swore that I would kill him for having me put in jail, and attempted to do so, was again arrested by a force of fifteen or twenty then, imprisoned, examined, tried and found guilty. Afterwards was sold for prison charges and Geo. T. Cooke, of Raleigh, bought me for two years for seventy-five dollars. I ran away from him and went to Nash county to work in turpentine. I was caught and put back in jail. Cooke came and took me out and I stayed my time out with him. I did very well at my work until October, 1862, when I took to drinking again. I, with Aleck Roberts, a one-eyed colored man, who is now, I believe, on the Manchester Railroad, and others whose names I do not recollect, all in the employment of the Confederate government, entered the grogshop of Alsey Bevers in the night-time and stole from him one barrel of whiskey. During the same night we went to Albert Johnson's, who lived near by, broke into his smoke house and took all his meat. We then broke into his cellar and stole about one two-horse wagon load of preserves, candies, soap and other articles. I was arrested on suspicion, confessed the act and was imprisoned. I stayed in jail six days, and, having cut through the rock walling of the jail with a sabre blade, I made my escape, and seven others with me. I started to Washington, in Beaufort county, then occupied by the Federal forces. I was pursued, and in Nash county a party of twenty-six men with a pack of hounds overtook me. We had a running fight of two and a half or three hours' duration. One man hollered out to me if my name was not Gus Holmes. I told him that was my name. He told me to surrender, but I would not do it and continued fighting until my way was clear. I then thought it was best for me to surrender myself which I did to a justice of the peace. I was put in jail and remained six weeks. I took the window sill, and, breaking the iron bar at the top of the window, made my escape. I started for Washington again, but was taken up at Sparta, eight miles below Tarboro, and put in the Tarboro jail, together with my wife, Adeline Holmes. Having proved myself a free man I came out, and David Foster paid my jail fees, and I worked with him and other Confederate officers till the close of the war. My wife having died I worked about from place to place until May, 1867. I then became one of a party to rob and plunder the railroad and express office of this town. This party consisted of John Morgan, John Stevens, John Dancy and Hardy Loyd.—They had robbed the warehouse and taken whiskey and provisions the Sunday night before the sale was taken. John Stevens asked me to join them in getting the iron safe and said that Hardy Loyd, who was a railroad hand, and stayed at the office, said that he would fix it. Hardy Loyd said they carried off the money every Friday, and that the money was not then carried off, and that there were bundles as large as his arm. I told him I would be on hand. They did not let me know the night they were to take it, and I was not in the party that got it. I think they got the safe. I was afterwards attacked by Hardy Loyd, John Dancy and John Stevens at the Tar river landing with clubs, they saying that I got some of the money in the division I was not entitled to. This happened in the presence of Nixon, foreman blacksmith. I had nothing to do with the taking of the safe, nor the money, though I was one of the original party to take it. I do not believe that Mathew King had anything to do with the safe affair. I killed him while I was drunk and while I was friendly with him. I did not know that I had killed him until next morning, when I attempted to escape to the woods. I am sorry for my crime and I hope God has forgiven me; but I have led such a bad life that I often wonder why I have been allowed to live so long."

THE STATE FINANCES—THE PUBLIC TREASURER'S COMMUNICATION.

We publish below the communication of the Public Treasurer addressed to the Legislature on Wednesday, accompanied by the Governor's endorsement of his views and recommendations.

We are compelled to defer further comment on this document until another day. We simply call attention, this morning, to the Treasurer's statement that the Treasury is empty,—a crushing commentary upon the profligacy of this Radical State government. Within about two months after the Sheriffs have paid in the people's taxes, the Treasury is exhausted, the money is squandered, and the clamor is for more from the groaning population,—not to be paid in, as usual, late in the year, after a little resting-spell from the visits of the Sheriff and his deputies, but, in part, before the first of April! This is another step in the "march of the new civilization."

But of this and the proposition to put the State's interest in the Railroads, &c., in the hands of the "Ring," more anon.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF N. C.
Raleigh, January 6, 1869.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to lay before you a report from the Public Treasurer, showing the present condition of the Public Treasury. I earnestly recommend that the General Assembly immediately adopt the necessary measures to meet the interest on the public debt, and to provide for the current expenses of the State government. I have full confidence in the ability of the Public Treasurer, and trust that the General Assembly will give to his recommendations and views the consideration to which they are justly entitled. The credit of the State is of paramount importance. It should be maintained at whatever sacrifice. In no other way can our good name be preserved untarnished; in no other way can we hope to prosecute those works of internal improvement on which it is believed our prosperity in the future materially depends.

I trust that it may be the pleasure of the General Assembly at once to pass a revenue bill which will enable the Treasurer to meet the January interest now due, and also provide for the interest falling due during the present year, as well as for the ordinary expenses of the government. The people of the State must expect, from the condition in which they find themselves, to contribute liberally in taxes to the Public Treasury.—I have no doubt, from my knowledge of their character, that they will do this cheerfully and promptly, inasmuch as it is indispensable to maintain the plighted faith of the State, and to render effective such measures as may be adopted to develop our great natural resources.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Treasury Department,
January 5th, 1869.

To the General Assembly of North Carolina:

I beg leave again respectfully to call your attention to the financial condition of the State.

It is with the deepest pain that I am compelled to report that it was found utterly impossible to raise money to pay the interest on the Public Debt due January 1st, 1869. Every effort was made to borrow the money needed, about $305,000, both in this State and in New York, but without effect. The only power in addition to the general credit of the State given me by the General Assembly under "An Act to authorize the Public Treasurer to supply temporary deficiencies in the Treasury," ratified 21st. December, A. D. 1868, was to pledge the same amount from the taxes first there after receivable. The same power was conferred under "An Act to provide for the payment of the interest of the lawful debt of the State," ratified 19 h. August, 1868. I could not induce capitalists to consider this pledge sufficient, because no tax bill has been passed adequate to the emergency. The Revenue Act now in force is only calculated to produce about $300,000. As of course the State government must be supported, requiring more than this amount, it is abundantly evident that the security of taxes to be received under this act is very meagre, and capitalists so believing refused to advance their funds.

It will be remembered that immediately on the opening of the late session of the General Assembly, I made a full statement of our finances and I then urged the immediate passage of a Revenue Act which would certainly net an amount sufficient to meet the expense of the State government and pay the interest on the public debt. I used this language: "It is impossible to restore the credit of the State except by raising the necessary funds by taxation. It is altogether practicable to borrow money in anticipation of taxes to be repaid when the same shall be collected, but it is idle to dream of elevating North Carolina to her once eminent position of financial credit without putting our hands into our pockets and providing for the annual expenses for interest as well as supporting the State Government by promptly paying them in cash."

In the above paragraph I averred the practicability of borrowing money in advance of taxes, provided a sufficient levy should be made. I also urged the expediency of the prompt passage of such a bill. A few days thereafter, on the 28th day of November, 1868, I reported such a bill and recommended its immediate consideration. This bill, while framed to carry out the provisions of the Constitution requiring the taxation of all real and personal property according to value, also was designed to fairly rate incomes, privileges and licenses, as the Constitution permits. Doubtless the bill has defects, but its prompt consideration with the view of removing such defects, and the passage of that or a similar one, would have enabled me to have avoided the great evil of not paying the January interest.

Finding that it was unlikely that my recommendations would be carried into effect in season, I found it necessary again to communicate with the Assembly. I made a frank statement of the condition of affairs. Owing to causes which all understand, we cannot borrow money at par at the commercial centres without a pledge of collaterals. In my report in November last, I proposed that coupon bonds of the State, payable to bearer, should be authorized to be kept in the Treasury, and used as collaterals whenever temporary loans should be needed. But an assault was afterwards made upon the bonds issued under authority of a law passed in August last for the benefit of the Chatham Railroad, on the ground that they were unconstitutional. This assault, although probably it was not so intended by the assailants, produced such a profound distrust of all issues under recent acts, that the Stock Board of New York refused to regard as good deliveries any North Carolina bonds dated since April 1st., 1868. It was too late to prepare and issue new bonds to be used as collaterals, and then take steps to procure a revocation of this resolution of the Stock Board.—Therefore, actuated by an intense anxiety to avoid the disrepute of non-payment of interest, I was forced to seek for other securities which might be available.

I was assured that money might be raised on a pledge of the interest owned by the State in various Railroad Companies. I could not, and cannot now, see how such a transaction could inflict loss to the State, provided the General Assembly intend to pass an adequate revenue act. Nothing is more common than to borrow money on collaterals. Indeed, this has become a favorite mode of effecting temporary loans in all our commercial cities. Of course the collaterals are required to be of greater value than the amount of the loan. I was bound to assume that after the General Assembly had passed an act in August last, directing me to begin paying interest in October, and to continue thereafter without interruption, it was their bona fide intention to provide the necessary funds for carrying into effect such directions. And if the Revenue Act reported by me, or one calculated to raise a like amount, should be passed, it is absolutely certain that I would be able to pay the sums borrowed out of the receipts from taxes. The bill recommended by me was carefully guarded to prevent loss to the State. It provided that money might be borrowed from time to time, because in the first place the interest matured from "time to time," and in the second place, if from any cause money should not be in the Treasury exactly at the maturing of any loan, sufficient to meet it, either an extension could be procured or else a loan effected with other parties on a similar pledge.—All danger of loss was averted (supposing always an adequate tax bill passed) by the provision that no sale of the stocks or bonds pledged should take place before October 1st, 1869, by which time all the taxes are payable. I admit that if no revenue act is to be passed there is danger under the bill of having the said interests sold, but surely I was not presumptuous in supposing such omission to be impossible.

I mention these considerations in explanation of my recommendation in regard to pledging the Railroad interests of the State, because much sharp criticism of my action has been made. Certainly it was no part of my intention or expectation that the public property should be sacrificed or even endangered. The plan was offered in the last resort as the only means of averting a great calamity, a still further prostration of the public credit. This evil has fallen upon us and I hope I may be pardoned for saying that unless it shall be promptly removed, abundant reproach will be heaped upon all responsible for it, and upon many who have labored to prevent it.

I therefore again respectfully but urgently press upon your attention the necessity of prompt action to begin the restoration of the public credit. Already have uncertainty and distrust been engendered in the minds of our creditors. Longer delay will render it impossible to restore their confidence. I respectfully recommend that a part, perhaps one half, of the taxes be made payable the 1st of April, a burden which can easily be borne by the people as their crops will then be sold.

In my opinion, it will still be necessary to authorize me to pledge as collaterals, a part of the interests owned by the State in Railroad corporations. If it be deemed that the powers granted me in the bill heretofore proposed were too great, let amendments be offered making such restrictions as will, in your view, guard the public interest. It is necessary not only to provide the sum sufficient to pay the January interest, but also that to become due on the 1st. of April.

Money is likewise needed to carry on the State Government. It becomes my duty to inform the General Assembly that the Treasury is now nearly empty—in fact, with the exception of the sums deposited by delinquent Sheriffs to their credit the Treasury is exhausted. Money is tight in all the financial centres, and I must have powers adequate to the emergency or it will be impossible to provide all necessary funds.

I have the honor to be,
Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
D. A. JENKINS,
Public Treasurer.

The municipal election in Knoxville, Tennessee, was held on Saturday, and created much excitement. The colored candidate for mayor was defeated by a large majority, but two negroes were elected to the board of aldermen.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jn. 7, P. M.

Major Jeff. L. Wofford, who was defeated for the 40th, but elected to the 41st Congress, from Mississippi, was before the Reconstruction Committee, to-day. He opposes admission under the election of last Summer. He knew if no frauds or violence being used at the election. He thought the Constitution was defeated, and, if forced on the people, it would be injurious to the best interests of the State. The constitution was too proscriptive. The negroes of the State did not favor the disfranchisement. The people were anxious for peace and quiet and were willing to submit to the acts of Congress.

The action of the Committee is in doubt, although Eggleston and his partizans are confident of an early admission.

The Election Committee will report adversely to both Christie and Wimpey, claiming a seat from Georgia.

In the Louisiana contested case, wherein Hunt, Menard and Jones are interested, early action is improbable.

Gen. Porter, of Gen. Grant's staff reports officially, from Little Rock, concerning Gov. Clayton's militia. He says that the present State Government is certainly in danger. (Bosh!) Previous to the Presidential election; Senator Barker and Upham, of the lower House, had been wounded. Hines, a Congressman and Freedmen's Bureau Agent, and a U. S. Iarshall, were driven away by threats. The Governor refrained from violence until after the election, fearing the opposition might make capital.—Afterwards he organized a militia of eight hundred, one fourth colored, with orders to live off the country, taking what was absolutely necessary, and giving vouchers, intending to pay all loyal holders of vouchers only. Two assassins had already been executed by sentence of a military commission. A number of others were run out of the State.

Porter says that the best result he sees is the disposition of nearly all business men voluntarily to enrol themselves as a posse and pledge to assist the Sheriff to arrest lawless characters. The Governor has accepted many such pledges and martial law exists in parts of but seven counties. The entire Conservative wing of the Republican party is opposed to the declaration of martial law. The militia has been under tolerably good control and the plundering reported in the Press is the taking of supplies under orders. One negro militia man raped a white woman and was promptly arrested and tried and executed.

Gen Porter further states that the Governor is anxious to relieve each county from martial law as soon as safe. He could seldom secure good men for officers, and, in the Eastern counties, he had to depend on the negroes for soldiers.

The Governor's policy has no doubt seriously interfered with the business men where martial law has been proclaimed, and injured business men of all parties; hence the opposition from loyalists. It has interfered with travel, taken off hands for the Militia, and they are badly needed, and created money panics. It has, however, accomplished much more good than the most sanguine expected.

NEGROES IN VIRGINIA RESIST THE LAW—FIGHT WITH THE MILITARY—THREE NEGROES KILLED—MORE TROUBLE IMMINENT—RADICAL RECONSTRUCTION.

NORFOLK, Jan. 7, P. M

A communication was received, last night, from the Sheriff of Princess Anne County, addressed to the Commanding officer of this Post, stating that, in attempting to serve a writ of ejectment, he had been forcibly resisted by an armed band of fifty negroes.

In compliance with a request for assistance to execute the law and preserve the peace, the military sent a force of twenty men to the aid of the civil authorities.

Later information, has been received from the scene of disturbance, to the effect that, in an encounter, to-day, between the military and negroes, a Sergeant had been mortally wounded and three negroes killed.

The officer commanding the detachment makes application for reinforcements. He says that the negroes in the surrounding country are arming and threaten an open attack. An additional military force will probably be sent out to-night.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a tricky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
